

Notice Regarding Photography in the Galleries

NO
FLASH LIGHTING

NO TRIPODS

FILMING PROHIBITED

NO
SELFIE STICKS

At 5 locations [ONLY] within “Japan in Architecture” exhibition and “MAM Collection 007,” “MAM Screen 008,” and “MAM Project 025” exhibitions, you may take photographs under the following conditions:

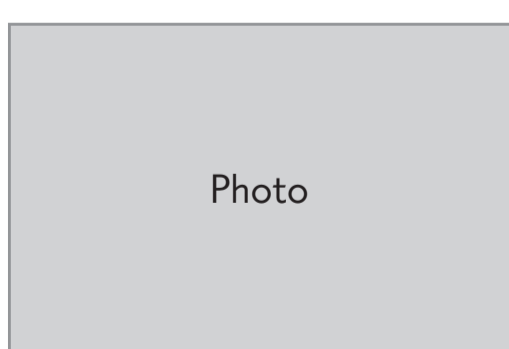

When taking photographs:

- Do NOT touch the artworks.
- Do NOT interfere with other visitors' enjoyment of the museum.
- Do NOT use flash lighting.
- Do NOT use tripods and selfie sticks.
- Do NOT film the artworks.

When using photographs taken of the exhibitions:

- Photographs may be used for non-commercial purposes only. Photographs may NOT be used for commercial purposes.
- Photographs may NOT be altered in any ways.
- The conditions above are licensed under the Creative Commons License. When uploading photographs for blogs or any other photo-sharing services, please make sure to display the photograph along with such credits as below.

Example:

Artist's name and work title:
Saito Seiichi + Rhizomatiks Architecture Power of Scale
This photograph is licensed under “Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivative Works 2.1 Japan.”

- For details about the Creative Commons License and marks, please see the Creative Commons Japan website:
<http://creativecommons.jp>
- If photographs that include other museum visitors are made public, they may infringe on that person's right of portrait.